

Name: _____

Date: _____

Whose and Who's Commonly Confused Words Worksheet

A pronoun is a word that may take the place of one or more nouns.

Whose is a possessive noun that shows ownership.

Who's is a contraction that stands for "who is."

Directions: Read each sentence below. Circle the pronoun that best completes each sentence.

Example A: (Who's / Whose) going to the baseball game tonight?

Answer: Who's

1. (Who's / Whose) suggesting that we go to the game early?
2. (Who's / Whose) going to eat the rest of the potatoes?
3. I am going early, so (who's / whose) going with me?
4. (Who's / Whose) shoes are those sitting on the ground in the living room?
5. (Who's / Whose) the winner of the championship game?
6. (Who's / Whose) suggestion was written in the box?
7. I can tell (who's / whose) prepared for school and (who's / whose) not.
8. When I sell my furniture (who's / whose) going to take it away?
9. (Who's / Whose) the most improved in the class?
10. I can tell exactly (who's / whose) studying and (who's / whose) not.
11. (Who's / Whose) coffee is that sitting on the table?
12. (Who's / Whose) money is that sitting on the chair?