

*Happy Chinese
New Year!*

Dear friends,

My name is Jayden,I'm from Kaohsiung,Taiwan.Taiwan is in Asia.
Taiwan is an island,but we have many delicious food,like stinky tofu,bobble milk tea,and many fruit,like watermelons and bananas.

Chinese New Year is coming,so I want to tell you about how people celebrate Chinese New Year in Taiwan.We eat dumplings,because it looks like money in the old days,and we wear red clothes,because it means good luck.

Do you know Chinese Zodiac? Let me tell you the story. Long time ago, Jade Emperor wanted to have a race for animals. The cat and the rat were friends, so the cat asked the rat to wake him up, but the rat forgot to wake up the cat, so the cat overslept and he was late for the race. The rat wanted to cross the river, but he was poor at swimming, so he asked the ox for help.

The ox gave the rat a ride and when they saw the finish line, the rat jumped to the finish line and got the first place.

Welcome to visit Taiwan. Wish you have a happy new year!

Best wishes,
Jayden.
